

The Flying Carpet – November 2009

~ Hello everyone! Here we are deep into Fall and the weather is getting chilly! I have put Sammy in his winter wear and dug out my warm riding boots...gee didn't summer just sail on bye? I hope everyone had a good year and enjoyed horsing around all summer. Winter riding is fun as well, I find that it is a great stress reliever and a good cure for cabin fever. I especially love going out to feed the horses on cold crisp nights. The stars are always bright and those happy little horse nickers just make life wonderful. So have a happy November and enjoy your fur friends!
Cheers, Alaina

~Congratulations Cayleigh and Chevy!!!

Cayleigh took her horse, Firefox Klassic Chevy, to Chilliwack to participate in the Rising Stars Youth Dressage Show in August. They had successful rides and together with two of her friends, their team took the Gold award in combined Dressage points. Cayleigh and Chevy also competed in the Hack portion of the show in the division of 14.2 - 16hh and won the "Champion" high point award. At the end of August, Cayleigh and Chevy also took home a High Point award at the North Thompson Fall Fair & Rodeo in Barriere.
